RIVERSIDE LEAGUE
ELECTS NEW PRESIDENT.

The Riverside League held its meeting last night and decided to accept the resignations of the late president and secretary. Three teams were represented, viz., Palamas, Aalas and Chinese Alohas, and before the meeting adjourned each one of the teams had expressed its willingness to accede to the fourth-fifths vote amendment, under the new presidency of A. L. C. Atkinson. W. Tin Chong was elected secretary of the league and he is considered a very capable man for the position. There will be another meeting of the league tomorrow at 12:15 sharp in Mr. Atkinson's office, and some further matters will be considered then.

The use of Aala Park has been secured for Sunday afternoons during the summer months, and although there is no probability of the two teams which have withdrawn rejoining the league, several other clubs are said to be ready to come in and thus make up a bunch of five or six teams for the Riverside League. Before last night's meeting adjourned Mr. Atkinson spoke strongly on the necessity of going ahead and making the league a success. In part he said:

"The Riverside League has been the pioneer and the leader of successful league baseball here. You fellows are playing better ball every year, and you are out on top because you deserve to be. I have no vote in the league; I merely act as president, and, so far as possible, you will have my support and my aid in every way. Petty disputes are not to be allowed to disrupt the most successful league in Honolulu."

HAUULA GIRLS BEAT
WAIALUA AT BASKETBALL

The Hauula damsels are certainly champion basketball players, and it would take a very strong combination to make them lower their colors in defeat. On Saturday last they encountered a team from the Waiwae school, on the latter's ground, and after a strenuous game, the Hauula girls won the game by a score of 17 to 9.

The game was a most enjoyable one right through, and although the Waiwae team were beaten, they put up a great struggle for victory and show that though they might be defeated they could not be dismayed. Most of the girls play the game out Waiwae way, and those who don't, form themselves into as fine a rooting bunch of beauty as can be seen in Hawaii.

After Saturday's match—which is the last of the present school year—all the players and fans adjourned to the hospitable home of Mr. Awai, where a grand luau was given by that gentleman. Everybody enjoyed themselves to the limit, and after the luau man—or perhaps girl is more correct—was satisfied, singing was in order for the rest of the evening. There is a rumor that the Waiwae girls know the reason why they lost the match, but the Bulletin correspondent neglected to inform this paper of the cause of the defeat.

HIGH SCHOOL HAND
BALL IS PROGRESSING.

The first round of the High School handball tournament is almost finished, there being only one match more to be played, and that will probably come off today. The matches played so far are as follows: Ingalls beat Barnhardt, 21-11, 21-13; MacCallino beat Crockett, 21-5, 21-17; Purvis beat Andrews, 21-13, 21-20; Rice beat Hart, 21-14, 21-19; Garden beat Johnston, 21-19, 21-20; McCandless defeated Norton, and Tracy and Douglas have yet to play.

The second round will be played as follows: Rice vs. Carden, MacCallino vs. Norton, Ingalls vs. the winner of the Tracy-Douglas match. The tournament is attracting a lot of attention and all the games are watched by a large crowd of handball enthusiasts, who turn out regularly to root for the favorites.
